

2005
Sangiovese
Matagrano

Winemaker Notes	Wine Facts
The grapes for this lovely wine are grown by Frank Matagrano on the banks of the American River near Lotus. The vineyard is frequented by bears and deer, attracted by some of the nicest Sangiovese grapes in the state. This wine has a beautiful nose of sour cherry, mint and rhubarb with a finely woven texture of lovely density, gentle tannins and a long and lively cherry finish.	Vineyard: Matagrano Harvest date: October 13, 2005 Bottled: August 14, 2007 Alcohol: 14.6% Titrateable acid: .66 gm/100 ml pH: 3.64 Barrels produced: 31
